

For the first time in years we feel protected against nasty, arrogant solicitors and I feel it is our right to be protected from them. I am sick of being stripped of our rights of privacy on the phone, mail or internet. Please do not take it away.